

BUSINESS DESCRIPTION

The Company was formed on 06/27/2018 as Non-profit Corporation under Tennessee state laws and headed by Tawanda Murray.

I Am Recovery was selected by Tennessee Association of Alcohol Drugs and other Addiction Services in 2019 as Volunteer of the years Organization for its community service. Also, IAR has been interviewed and aired by Channel 5 News. IAR was also a Guest Speaker for The Core-Civic 3- day Conference. IAR has been a panelist for Meharry General Symposium beginning 2017 - present. The program has also done a Biography for Morehouse College.

-
- Opportunity: IAR being a facilitator of CCA prison and Sponsor for Women in the DC-4 Drug Court Program , Local Treatment Centers and Half-Way Houses provides women in our program the opportunity to regain a foundation in their lives and Community.
 - Product Overview: We share on subject matter – Boundaries, Vision, Trauma Crisis, Coping Skills, Processing, Being-intentional, Character Defects, Co-Occurring Disorders, Mindfulness, Decision Making, Anger- Management, Education -Advocacy, Change-Plan, Triggers-Temptations, Personal-Development, Communication Skills, Relationships, Twelve-Steps and more.
 - Key Participants and Management Team: The I Am Recovery Organization has received letters of reference from Sheriff Daron Hall, Tennessee Association of Alcohol Drugs, and other Addiction Services (TAADAS) Senator Brenda Gilmore, and Juvenile Justice Safe Babies Program.
-